Compiled from multiple organizations, this list includes funding and relief information for artists impacted by Covid-19, virtual programming and classes, current opportunities, and various other support resources. We intend to update this list on a regular basis. As of July 14, 2020.

FUNDING/SUPPORT SERVICES

THE ACTORS FUND
Emergency Financial Assistance application is available for those that meet eligibility requirements. Please review all criteria and collect necessary documentation before filling out the online form.

ALLIANCE OF ARTISTS COMMUNITIES
Emergency Relief Programs: In the event of an emergency, the Alliance can offer support for artists by connecting them with our diverse network of residency programs across the country. By providing the time, space, and support that residencies offer, artists can focus on their work, reflect, and renew their creative practice during an especially challenging time.

ART IS ALIVE
Art is Alive is a solidarity effort aimed at providing resources, spreading awareness and building connectedness within the artistic and creative freelance communities impacted by the 2020 COVID-19 pandemic. Created by artist Rhiannon Giddens, and in collaboration with Amanda Palmer and Neil Gaiman, Art is Alive connects fans to artists in a stay-at-home climate.

ARTIST RELIEF
To support artists during the COVID-19 crisis, a coalition of national arts grant-makers have come together to create an emergency initiative to offer financial and informational resources to artists across the United States.
